A SOUND SAVINGS BANK.

The bulk of the deposit of the Marble Savings Bank, at Rutland, is placed in first mortgages on real estate, mostly farms—and it can be said that in all its years of business since '83 it has never lost a dollar on a poor farm loan.

The safety of each investment made rather than the rate of interest to be derived has been the first thought.

Backed by this careful management at the hands of "directors who direct," this bank carries a reserve fund of over one hundred thousand dollars, which,
as the bank has no stockholders, belongs to the depositors, and is only held as a further protection to their interests.

Money received at the Marble Savings Bank before August 6, bears interest from the 1st at 4 per cent. per annum.

For information of any kind, a letter addressed to John N. Woodfin, president, or Ivor S. MacFarlane, treasurer, will receive a prompt and courteous reply.—Rutland Herald.
